Julius Baer expands product offering on BX Swiss

Mini futures and other structured products from Julius Baer can now be traded on the trading segment deriBX. Julius Baer is thus expanding its product offering via BX Swiss exchange.

At the end of last year, Julius Baer, one of Switzerland's leading wealth management groups for sophisticated investors from around the world, issued its first range of warrants on BX Swiss. This product offering is now being expanded to include additional structured products and mini futures. The new products on underlyings such as equities and indices from Switzerland, Europe and the US are available for trading on BX Swiss.

«The trading segment deriBX offers investors a professional platform for trading structured products and is constantly being expanded to include valuable partnerships with renowned issuers», said Lucas Bruggeman, CEO of BX Swiss AG.
