Dynamic Capital Group expands ETP offering on BX Swiss

BX Swiss further expands its segment for listed ETPs and welcomes Dynamic Capital Group as new issuer

With the new ETP from DMAP PCC Ltd, the FINMA and FMA regulated issuer of Zurich-based Dynamic Capital Group AG, 47 ETPs from 13 issuers are already tradable daily on BX Swiss from 9.00 am to 5.30 pm. The underlying investment universe of the new ETP with the ticker symbol CAMETP is actively managed by CAM Schweiz AG as asset manager. The Dynamic Capital Group plans to gradually expand its offering.

"We are excited to have gained another ETP issuer with Dynamic Capital Group. Investors now have an even broader range of exchange-traded investment solutions on cryptocurrencies at their disposal," emphasizes Matthias Müller, Head of Markets & Services at BX Swiss AG.

"For us, exchange-traded products (ETPs) are the investment vehicle of the future and give retail clients access to fast-growing asset classes. Especially in the field of crypto investment, our ETPs are the perfect gateway between FIAT and cryptocurrency and enable retail customers to invest in various crypto products without having to open a crypto wallet themselves. These can be different ETPs, such as leveraged cryptocurrency strategies or baskets of different cryptocurrencies. Our ETPs can be actively managed, so that the strategy can permanently reflect events of the market," highlights the press office of Dynamic Capital Group AG.
